ELIOT LAUDS BOSTON NOMINATION PLAN

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—Dr. Charles W. Eliot, president emeritus of Harvard University, speaking to-day before the legislative committee investigating direct primary elections, said the adoption of such a system for this state would not be advisable. The method of nomination by petition, which was being tried in Boston, was better, he thought.

He told the Senators and Assemblymen at the same time that one of the most vital reforms they could institute would be the adoption of a shorter ballot. The hearing was held at the Hotel New York. Eliot had many other engagements in New York. He was probably under examination less than half an hour. He remarked that he had been constantly selected political candidate in Boston. Then he discussed the local law of Massachusetts, which instituted direct primaries, and the later system of nomination by petition recently taken up. This newer system, he explained, had not been tried yet in the next election being set for January.

As to fraudulent signing. "How many petitions are being filed by candidates for Mayor?" asked Judge Walter H. Knepp, counsel for the committee. "There were ten or twelve," replied President Eliot, "but the names were and only reduced until now I believe there are but three."

SEARCH FOR GREEN GLOVER'S LIFE TERM

James Bradley Harmon, attorney-at-law of 200 State Street, the Southwicks, police, was today ordered to file his petition in the State prison at Charlestown for the murder of David Henry Barker in Southwicks, December 12, last year. The petition of pleading guilty to murder in the second degree was filed after Attorney James H. Foley, counsel for Harmon, had advised him of the fact which commenced a week ago Monday. Today at a conference between lawyers for both sides and Judge White, Attorney James H. Foley presented the offer, subject to acceptance by Harmon's family.

Following the conference the parents of Harmon, who died the defendant last fall, went into one of the side rooms for consultation of the offer. At the end of twenty minutes they announced they would accept the offer. It is understood that the family conference Harmon's father was the only one who objected to its acceptance.

Harmon Changes Plea. Harmon, the prisoner, was then brought into the courtroom. He was accompanied by two deputy sheriffs. Harmon walked with his hands thrust in his pockets and smiled as he entered the prisoner's cage. Judge White and Fox then entered the courtroom. The case of No. 10,277, which the jury had in the room.

CLARK LEADS RUTT

Mystery in Arraignment of Frank H. Mason Under Charge of Embezzlement. Held in $5,000 Bail.

Frank H. Mason, clerk of the United States District Court, was arraigned before Judge Aldrich in the United States Equity Court this afternoon on four secret indictments returned by the Federal Grand Jury last night. Three of the indictments charge Mr. Mason with the embezzlement of funds of the government in his possession. The fourth charges him with making a false oath on his returns.

Attorney George L. Wilson, who is associated with Boyce B. Jones, appeared in court to-day for Mason. Mason was held in $5,000 bail, which he furnished.

This action is the result of an investigation of the Federal courts of Boston made by Inspector de Weedy of the Department of Justice of Washington. It is alleged that irregularities were found in Mr. Mason's accounts and reports.

Long in Position. United States District Attorney A. P. French, acting under instructions received by him from the Department of Justice in Washington, brought the matter before the Federal Grand Jury, with the result that the indictments were returned last night.

Mr. Mason has not been formally placed under arrest. Last night he was notified that the indictments had been found against him, and Attorney Wilson, Mr. Mason's counsel, agreed to be responsible for his client's appearance in court to-day.

Mr. Mason is an elderly man. His hair and mustache are grizzled, white. He has been clerk of the United States District Court for twenty years. More than twenty years ago he removed from Worcester. With his wife, two daughters and one son he lives at No. 21 Everett street, Brookline.

He has for years a manager of the first class of public, and his son now belongs to the same organization. He and his family have for many years been prominent in Brookline society and his arrangement to-day seemed the greatest surprise.

Ordered from Capital. It is understood that the charges against Mr. Mason are more or less technical. United States District Attorney French, after the arraignment, had but little to say.

As acting under instructions from Washington, remarked Mr. French, "and this particular case is certainly one where I should refrain from making any statement. All I said is that the people have a right to know the truth about the charges against Mr. Mason and in justice to the public the government."

BURNED TO DEATH WHEN LUPSET. BROOKLINE, Dec. 11.—Henry Brockway, 30, No. 300 Burgett street, was found today by his wife, who was in the room, dead. She was in the room and over the body lay near the body.

BLUEFIELDS, Nicaragua, Dec. 11.—The marines of the cruiser Des Moines, under Commander Shipley, are all ready for landing to-day, following the request of General Estrada for aid. This request was made through the American Consul, Mr. Moffat.

Great fear is felt in the city generally of an attack by the Zelayan forces. It has become known that the government troops at Rama are merely a blind, and that a stronger force of 3,000 were ordered to proceed against Bluefields, the seat of the provisional government under Estrada.

A descent on the city would mean that Zelaya has outwitted Estrada and that from results would be the issue.

There are 120 Americans in Bluefields. The two Marines can run like the wind and are a strong force of marines, but see rapid pace.

Gen. Estrada Outwitted. There has been a sudden and unpleasant realization here of government strength and inherent weakness. President Zelaya has outwitted General Estrada and the latter's chief line is to Americans later.

It turns out that the conference sought by General Viquez of the government troops near Rama, and which the house had interpreted as a sign of yielding on the part of Zelaya's troops, was a blind intended to secure a delay of the expected battle until the loyal army had been a decided advantage of position.

It is also learned that Zelaya had kept a scattered force before Rama, his real army of 3,000 men was hurrying by forced marches toward Bluefields.

The report that a descent upon this city from Rama was possible only by river is now known to be untrue.

General Estrada endeavored to cover all alarm by informing the correspondents at the front that all was tranquil, with the exception that General Viquez and Major Eyn would surrender. Ten minutes after he had talked with the reporters the insurgent leader had his rifle pointed at the side, Adolfo Iñigo, on the telephone, and was telling him what he believed to be the true situation.

Cruiser on the Job. To the title General Estrada declared that the Americans should send more machine arms, as Viquez apparently had outwitted him. Estrada also expressed the opinion that a request should be made of the United States government for permission to the 150 Americans in Bluefields.

Disa related to U. S. Consul Moffat with the new intelligence and the Consul announced that Commander Shipley's marines from the U. S. cruiser Des Moines, with their six rapid fire guns, are on the way to Bluefields. It was reported today that Major Eyn, commander of the insurgent forces, and today's conference, was the main who was expected to deliver the address, and that he knew better the hidden forces, which the forces were sent to Bluefields.

President Taft is determined that Zelaya shall be disposed of. He has ordered that the United States forces will not be sent to Bluefields until the situation here is such that the Americans have been assured sufficient to cope with any situation, even the 3,000 well-armed Central American soldiers, but the revolutionaries who are now in military alliance with some American marines here.

ZELAYA'S ARMY IS EXPECTED TO REACH BLUEFIELDS TO-NIGHT. NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 11.—A special cablegram from Port-au-Prince, Haiti, says information which will force immediate American intervention in Nicaragua. President Zelaya and almost his entire army are about to reach Bluefields and are expected to reach there before night, and a bloody slaughter is expected in the next few days.

American aid and other foreigners and many natives as possible are leaving by every boat. Transportation is at a premium.

American request for a conference with Estrada's forces at Rama is declared to have been denied. It is said that the army, and it is said that the army is moving in haste to Bluefields to prevent negotiation of his new government. The situation is very serious and is not being handled. America at present is not being handled. America at present is not being handled.
